FOREWORD

Living nations preserve their history and traditions which remind the coming generations of their glorious past. The history of Provincial Assembly of the Punjab, the largest House of legislature in Pakistan, extends over a period of more than a century.

Its evolutionary journey started in 1897 when the first ever provincial legislature in Punjab was constituted as Council of the Lieutenant Governor of Punjab. It was a nominated body with very limited legislative powers. It was succeeded by the Punjab Legislative Council in 1921 and then by the Punjab Legislative Assembly in 1937. On independence in 1947, it continued as the West Punjab Legislative Assembly, subsequently renamed as Punjab Legislative Assembly. Upon formation of One Unit of West Pakistan, this Institution also served as Provincial Assembly of West Pakistan from 1955 to 1969. After the dissolution of One Unit in 1970, it has been serving as the Provincial Assembly of the Punjab since 1972.

This book contains the name lists of members of the Legislative Councils and Assemblies of the Province of Punjab constituted from 1897 to date. A brief description of the legal framework under which the above mentioned Houses of legislature were constituted and profile of each of them has also been given before the name lists of Members of each Assembly.

The entire credit for the production of this revealing publication goes to the Editorial Board who, with their sustained efforts, collected relevant information spreading over a period of more than a century.

This publication has been brought out as a humble tribute to our forerunners.

I hope that this publication will serve a useful purpose in acquainting the public of this august House and the personalities who played their role in the political history of the country during the pre independence and the post independence periods.

PREFACE TO THE FIRST EDITION

The need to compile a consolidated history and list of Members of the Punjab Legislature had long been felt for the purpose of research in the parliamentary and legislative history of the largest Province of Pakistan i.e. the Punjab. In 1987, an attempt was made in this regard and a book titled “The Punjab Legislators” was published by the Punjab Assembly Secretariat which contained the names of the Legislators. Since then, five new Assemblies have been constituted. Besides updating the book, there was a need for adding additional material in the book about the legal framework and profile of each Assembly.

Visualizing the research oriented importance of the book, Ch Muhammad Afzal Sahi, Speaker, Provincial Assembly of the Punjab, appointed a separate Editorial Board, under the patronage of the Secretary, comprising Mr Inayat Ullah Lak, Mr Khalid Mahmood and Dr Muhammad Arshad Ovaisi.

This book is much more than a revised version of the 1987 publication. It has been divided into four Parts. A brief profile of each Legislature has been given which is followed by the list of Parliamentarians of that period.

It is hoped that this book will attract the interest of the researchers and general readers alike. All efforts have been made to keep this compilation free from errors. Any suggestion, however, for improvement in the book would be appreciated.

PREFACE TO THE SECOND EDITION

A sequel to “The Punjab Legislators” published in 1987 and the first edition of “The Punjab Parliamentarians” published in June 2007 is in your hands. The first edition, contained name lists of Members of the Punjab Legislature from 1897 to 2007 along with the profile of each legislature. After constitution of the present Provincial Assembly of the Punjab in 2008, there was a need to update the first edition.

By and large, this present publication has the same layout as that of the 2007 edition. It has been divided into four Parts. A brief profile of each Legislature has been given followed by the list of Parliamentarians of that period.

PREFACE TO THE THIRD EDITION

As the current era is known as the era of Information Technology and advanced knowledge that is why these two disciplines instigate people to learn and get more and more information about their desired objects. So I hope that this revised Third Edition of the Punjab Parliamentarians from 1897 to 2014 would satisfy the needs of not only the political leaders but also of the researchers and students. I am sure that this humble effort of the Assembly Secretariat would be a great reference book.

The first and second editions provided information about the names of Members of the Punjab Legislature from 1897 to 2007 along with a sketch of each legislature. Now after the constitution of the present Punjab Assembly, it was felt indispensable to update/improve the book.

Overall the present Revised Third Edition has the same lay out as that of the 2007 edition. It has four parts i.e., Pre-Independence period, Post-Independence Period, Advisory Councils and Miscellaneous. A brief sketch of each legislature has been given along with List of the Parliamentarians of that period.

The Assembly Secretariat has taken all possible care and caution, however, pointing of omissions and errors would be welcomed to rectify the same in the next edition. Suggestions with respect to its improvement would be highly appreciated.

Lahore,

INTRODUCTION

Located in South Asia, the Islamic Republic of Pakistan is bordered by Afghanistan and Iran in the west, the Republic of India in the east and the People's Republic of China in the far northeast. Pakistan is the sixth most populous country with the second largest Muslim population in the world after Indonesia. Pakistan covers an area of 796,095 sq km and has an estimated population over 174 million with 97% Muslim majority.

World's seventh nuclear state Pakistan is a member of the United Nations, Commonwealth Parliamentary Association, World Trade Organization, Shanghai Cooperation Organization, G33 Developing Countries, Group of 77 Developing Nations, SAARC, major non-NATO ally of the United States.

Pakistan emerged as an independent state after the end of British rule in India in 1947. Originally it comprised two wings, i.e. East Pakistan and West Pakistan. In 1971, however, political dissent in East Pakistan culminated in secession of East Pakistan as an independent state of Bangladesh and West Pakistan became the present day Pakistan which comprises four provinces: Punjab, Sindh, North West Frontier and Balochistan, besides the Federally Administered Tribal Areas. Islamabad is the federal capital. The province of Punjab is the largest of the four provinces.

Present day Punjab was once a part of Indian Punjab before independence in 1947. For this reason, the history of Provincial Assembly of the Punjab is divided in two periods, i.e. pre-independence period and the post independence period.

According to the present Constitution, Pakistan is a federal republic with a bicameral national Parliament and four unicameral Provincial Assemblies in its four provinces. The Provincial Assembly of the Punjab, Pakistan, like other parliamentary institutions in the country, has evolved through a long process of constitutional development during the pre independence and the post independence periods.

The genesis of the legislature in the sub-continent can be traced back to the nineteenth century. From 1833 to 1861, the Governor General in Council was the sole administrative as well as the legislative authority in the British India, who ran the administration and was assisted by the executive and legislative councils. Beneath the Governor General were the Governors of Provinces of India.

The War of Independence waged in 1857 against the British rulers of India made them realize the necessity of establishing closer contacts with the local public and its opinion. The enactment of the Indian Councils Act, 1861 was the aftermath. This Act provided for the establishment of a Council of the Lieutenant Governor at the state level to transact legislative business as the legislative council. The 1861 Act thus laid the foundation for the future legislature as an independent entity separate from the Executive Council.

The first council in the Punjab, however, was yet to be constituted when the Indian Councils Act, 1892 was passed. This Act enlarged the functions of the Council in two respects, firstly, the Council could discuss the annual financial statement and secondly, it could ask questions subject to certain limitation. Members were to hold office for two years.

First Legislative Council in the province of the Punjab under the Indian Councils Act, 1861, as modified by the Indian Councils Act, 1892, was constituted in 1897. This Council comprised both official and non-official members. The meetings of the Council were presided over by the Lieutenant Governor himself.

Element of election in the Legislative Council was introduced for the first time by the Indian Councils Act, 1909, also known as the Morley-Minto Reforms. The Act gave Indians limited role in the legislative councils. It dispensed with official majorities in the Provincial Legislative Councils and gave them power to move resolutions upon matters of general public interest and also upon the Budget and to ask supplementary questions. This Act carried constitutional development a step further.

The Government of India Act, 1915, was enacted to consolidate the provisions of all the preceding Acts. This Act also provided for the constitution of the Punjab Legislative Council instead of the Councils of Lieutenant Governor. During the period from 1897 to 1920, four Councils of Lieutenant Governor were constituted, in 1897, 1910, 1913 and 1916.

The Montague-Chelmsford Reforms were introduced by the British Government to set up self-governing institutions in India. The reforms were outlined in the Montague-Chelmsford Report prepared in 1918 and formed the basis of the Government of India Act, 1919.

The 1919 Act was essentially transitional in character. The franchise was extended, and increased authority was given to the central and the provincial legislative councils. The most important feature of the 1919 Act was the introduction of a new system of dyarchy or double government in the Provinces. The Act created 11 self-governing provinces. The Governor could not be a member of the Legislative Council, he could, however, address the members in the Legislative Council. Four Legislative Councils under this Act were constituted in Punjab; in 1921, 1924, 1927 and 1930.

Under Section 84 of the 1919 Act, a statutory commission was to be appointed at the end of ten years, to determine the next stage in the realization of self-rule in India. Accordingly, the British government appointed a Commission under Sir John Simon in November 1927. The Commission, which had no Indian members, was given the task to investigate India's constitutional problems and make recommendations to the government on the future Constitution of India. The Commission recommended further constitutional changes, which were embodied in the Government of India Act, 1935. This Act granted Indian provinces autonomy and the dyarchical system was discontinued.

The 1935 Act provided for a Federation and the constituent units as the Governor's Provinces. This Act, for the first time, provided for the constitution of an Assembly in place of a Council. Almost all Assembly members were to be elected, with the exception of some special and otherwise unrepresented groups. The term of the Assembly was fixed as five years. The 1935 Act also made a division of powers between the Centre and the Provinces. Two Legislative Assemblies were constituted under this Act, in 1937 and 1946.

In 1947, the sub-continent was divided into two sovereign and independent states of Pakistan and India under the Indian Independence Act, 1947. Pending promulgation of a Constitution, the Government of India Act, 1935, with necessary alterations and modifications through the Pakistan (Provisional Constitution) Order, 1947, was adopted as the provisional Constitution.

With the creation of Pakistan, the province of Punjab was also divided into two provinces, i.e. Western Punjab (in Pakistan) and Eastern Punjab

(in India) resulting in the division of the Punjab Legislative Assembly, constituted in 1946, into East Punjab and West Punjab Legislative Assemblies. This carried forward West Punjab Legislative Assembly was declared to be the first Provincial Assembly after independence under the Pakistan (Provincial Legislatures) Order, 1947, and was dissolved in 1949.

In 1950, the Province of West Punjab was renamed as Province of Punjab and the second Assembly was constituted in 1951 which ceased to exist when under the Establishment of West Pakistan Act, 1955, the provincial units and other states were incorporated into a single Province namely Province of West Pakistan.

Awaiting enactment of the first Constitution by the Constituent Assembly, the 1955 Act contained provision for constitution of an interim Provincial Assembly of West Pakistan which was elected in 1956 in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, however, before it could hold its first sitting, the first Constitution of Pakistan was enacted and the interim Assembly was declared to be the first Provincial Assembly of West Pakistan in accordance with the provisions of the 1956 Constitution. On October 7, 1958, Martial Law was imposed in the country, the Assemblies were dissolved and the 1956 Constitution was abrogated. No elections under the 1956 Constitution, therefore, could be held.

The second Constitution of Pakistan was promulgated on March 1, 1962 and the Martial Law was lifted. The 1962 Constitution provided for a unicameral legislature. The principle of Basic Democracy was introduced for the first time in the country and the system of indirect elections was presented. The next two Provincial Assemblies of West Pakistan were constituted in 1962 and 1965 under the 1962 Constitution.

On March 25, 1969, Martial Law was again imposed in the country, the 1962 Constitution was abrogated and the Assemblies were dissolved.

In July 1970, the Province of West Pakistan was abolished and the status of provinces was restored under the West Pakistan (Dissolution) Order, 1970 (PO I of 1970). A Legal Framework Order, 1970 was issued which provided for setting up of a National Assembly and Provincial Assemblies of East Pakistan, Punjab, Sindh, KPK and Balochistan. The elections to the National Assembly and Provincial Assemblies were held on December 7 and 17, 1970 respectively. However, due to political crisis, the elected Assemblies could not become functional till 1972 when the Martial Law was lifted and an Interim Constitution came into force on April 21, 1972.

The National Assembly formed a Constitution Committee on April 17, 1972 to prepare the first draft for framing a Constitution. The report of the Committee was presented on December 31, 1972 along with a draft Constitution. It was unanimously passed by the National Assembly in its session held on April 10, 1973, was authenticated by the President on April 12, 1973, and came into force on August 14, 1973.

Provincial Assembly of the Punjab, constituted as a result of general elections held in December 1970 under the Legal Framework Order, 1970, was declared to be the first Assembly in accordance with the provisions of the 1973 Constitution. The term of the Assembly was fixed as five years, however, it was dissolved few months before completion of its tenure.

The second Assembly under the 1973 Constitution was constituted in April 1977, however, it was also dissolved after only two months and twenty-seven days, as a result of promulgation of Martial Law on July 5, 1977. The 1973 Constitution was kept in abeyance for a period of about 8 years and, after having been substantially amended, it was partially reactivated on March 10, 1985. With the lifting of Martial Law on December 30, 1985, the Constitution was wholly restored. The successive Punjab Assemblies were constituted in 1985, 1988, 1990, 1993 and 1997. All these Assemblies were dissolved before completion of their constitutional tenure of five years.

After yet another military intervention on October 12, 1999, the Parliament and Provincial Assemblies were suspended and later dissolved. Following a constitutional gap of three years, the Assemblies were constituted as a result of general elections held in October 2002.

The Assemblies were near the completion of their constitutional tenure of five years, when the Chief of Army Staff/President declared emergency in the country on November 3, 2007, following increasing acts of terrorism and judicial activism. A Provisional Constitution Order was issued suspending the Constitution. The National Assembly stood dissolved on November 15, 2007 after completing its constitutional life and the Provincial Assemblies were dissolved on November 18, 2007, few days before completion of five years' tenure. It was decided to hold general elections on January 8, 2008. The state of emergency was lifted on December 15, 2007 and the Constitution was restored with certain amendments. Following the assassination of the former Prime Minister, Ms Benazir Bhutto on December 27, 2007, general elections were postponed till February 18, 2008.

The Punjab Assembly, constituted as a result of February 2008 general elections, was the fifteenth Assembly after independence. The Assembly stood dissolved after completing its constitutional life on March 2013 on the advice of Chief Minister.

The present Punjab Assembly constituted as a result of May 2013 general elections is the sixteenth Assembly after independence.

Along with the name lists of the Parliamentarians, who ever remained a member of Punjab legislature, this book contains legal framework and composition of all the legislatures constituted since 1897 to date. It has been divided into four Parts. Part 1 relates to pre independence period and Part 2 covers post independence period.

During the periods of Martial Law in the country, Advisory Councils were also constituted on two occasions, which had no legislative powers but were housed in the Assembly building. A brief profile of these Councils has been given in Part 3.

Part 4 of the book contains lists of the Governors, Chief Ministers, Speakers, Deputy Speakers, Leaders of Opposition and Secretaries.

Council of the Lieutenant Governor of the Punjab 1897

November 1, 1897 to July 3, 1909

The Indian Councils Act, 1861 laid the foundation for the establishment of a local legislature in the Punjab; and section 44 of the Act, as well as the dispatch of Sir Charles Wood, Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, left it to the Governor-General in Council to determine at what time, effect should be given to this intention. The older provinces received the privilege at once but the province of Punjab, along with a few others, was admitted to this privilege after a period of 36 years¹, when the 1861 Act had been modified by the Indian Councils Act, 1892.

The first ever Legislature in the Punjab was thus constituted in 1897. Though it was a nominated body of both official and non-official members, it had the power of making laws. The General Clauses Act, 1898 (moved by Sir Louis William Dane on November 1, 1897 and passed by the Council on April 15, 1898) was the first enactment in the history of Punjab.

The first Council functioned for a period of more than eleven years. It held 28 meetings and passed 23 laws. The meetings of the Council were presided over by the Lieutenant Governor himself.

Council of the Lieutenant Governor of the Punjab 1910

January 3, 1910 to December 14, 1912

The first Council was a body of nominated members only and there was a need to introduce the element of election in the Legislative Council, which was, for the first time, brought in by the Indian Councils Act, 1909, as a result of the Minto-Morley Reforms. The membership was increased from ten to thirty; including fourteen non-official and five elected members¹. The Council was also given power to pass resolutions, on the budget, as also on matters of public importance, which, however, were of a recommendatory nature.

The second Council of the Lieutenant Governor was thus constituted in accordance with the provisions of Indian Councils Acts of 1861, 1892 and 1909. This Council held 18 meetings during its life of three years; and passed 14 Acts².

Chapter 2

1921, 1924, 1927, 1930

Punjab Legislative Council 1921

January 8, 1921 to October 27, 1923

The First World War gave momentum to the growing demand for self-government in British India. Therefore, the new constitutional reforms, under the Montague-Chelmsford scheme, were introduced by the British Government. The purpose of this reform scheme was to introduce new system of Government in the Provinces with the name of “dyarchy”. This scheme was implemented through the Government of India Act, 1919. The Government of India Act, 1915, had already provided for the constitution of the Punjab Legislative Council instead of the Councils of Lieutenant Governor. The first Punjab Legislative Council under the 1919 Act was constituted in 1921. The Council comprised 93 members², seventy per cent to be elected and rest to be nominated; and the term of the Council was fixed as three years. Previously (till 1920), the Lieutenant Governor presided over the meetings of the Council, and for the first time, a nominated person (designated as President), and in his absence, an elected person (designated as Deputy President) was to preside the meetings of the Council³.

The first election which was conducted in the House was of deputy president of the Council which was contested between Sardar Mahtab Singh and Chuadhri M. Amin. Sardar Mahtab Singh won the election by securing 48 votes, while Ch. M. Amin secured 37 votes.

Mace which is the symbol of the authority of the House was first time presented to the House by the Governor of the Punjab in the session held on November 3, 1921. The House unanimously accepted the gift from the Governor⁴.

The first Punjab Legislative Council had held 98 meetings when the Lieutenant Governor dissolved the Council on October 27, 1923 after completion of its tenure⁵. The announcement of its dissolution was made by the Governor Punjab in his address to the Council.

Punjab Legislative Council 1924

January 2, 1924 to October 27, 1926

The second Legislative Council under the Government of India Act, 1919 was constituted in 1924. Section 20 of the said Act envisaged that after the expiration of four years from the first meeting of the first Punjab Legislative Council (i.e., January 8, 1921), the President would be elected by the Council.

Mr C.M. King, C.S.I., C.I.E., I.C.S was nominated by the Governor Punjab under Rule 3(2) as Chairman to preside over the Council meeting until new President is duly elected by the Council and his election is assented by the Governor Punjab.

The election was accordingly held and Sir Sheikh Abdul Qadir was the first elected and the first Muslim President of this Council. Till his election, the previous (nominated) President Mr Herbert Alexander Casson continued as such. Sir Sheikh Abdul Qadir resigned from his office in September 1925 when he was appointed Minister for Education¹, and was succeeded by Khan Bahadur Chaudhri Sir Shahab-ud-Din². The Council held its last sitting on October 25, 1926 and was dissolved on October 27, 1926 after completion of its three years tenure³. It held 102 meetings during its life.

Punjab Legislative Council 1930

October 24, 1930 to November 10, 1936

The fourth and the last Legislative Council under the Government of India Act, 1919 was constituted in 1930. On October 25, 1930, Khan Bahadur Chaudhry Sir Shahab-ud-Din was elected unopposed as President for the third consecutive term¹. He was appointed Minister for Education on October 20, 1936²; and was succeeded by Rao Bahadur Chaudhry Chhotu Ram³.

Though the term of the Council was three years, but due to ongoing political development, it was given leases of life from time to time. In the meanwhile, the Government of India Act, 1935 was passed which laid down the tenure of the provincial legislature to be five years. In the circumstances, the Council continued for more than six years. The Council held 197 meetings during its extended tenure; and passed 26 Acts⁴.

It is worth mentioning that during the tenure of this Council, construction of the present Assembly building was inaugurated on November 17, 1935 by Sardar Sir Jogendra Singh, Minister for Agriculture.

Punjab Legislative Assembly

1937, 1946

Punjab Legislative Assembly 1937

April 5, 1937 to March 19, 1945

The popular demand, for more responsible government and for fully sovereign assemblies, grew stronger and stronger. The British Government held a series of round table conferences in London during the period from 1930 to 1932 with representatives of various parties in India and formulated certain constitutional reforms. These reforms were eventually embodied in the Government of India Act, 1935. This Act introduced Provincial autonomy which was of a controlled type, but still it was an improvement over the previous system of dyarchy.

The Government of India Act, 1935 brought significant change in the political scenario of the sub-continent. It provided for the constitution of Punjab Legislative Assembly instead of the Punjab Legislative Council and the office of President was re-designated as Speaker. The membership of the Assembly was fixed as 175 divided into various categories¹. The election of the first Legislative Assembly under the said Act was held in 1936. The first sitting of the first Assembly was held on April 5, 1937 at Council Hall, Lahore as the Assembly building was under construction. The Assembly elected its first Speaker on April 6, 1937. The first ever walk-out, in the history of Punjab Legislature, was also staged at this occasion².

The first meeting in the present building was held on November 10, 1938¹.

The office of Sergeant at arms was first introduced on the sitting held on June 29, 1937. At that time it is called Marshal of the House².

The first ever library Committee was also constituted by Mr Speaker in the sitting held on December 12, 1939., under the Chairmanship of Deputy Speaker.

The term of the Assembly was five years³, however, due to various political developments as well as World War II, the Assembly continued for about eight years and its last sitting was held on March 19, 1945. The Assembly held 368 sittings during its extended life.

Punjab Legislative Assembly 1946

March 21, 1946 to July 4, 1947

In accordance with the provisions of the Government of India Act, 1935, the second Legislative Assembly was constituted in 1945 with the same membership of 175.

As Malik Khizar Hayat Khan Tiwana lost the majority in the House and no party was in position to form the government then Governor Punjab E. M. JENKINS proclaimed emergency and assumed the power of executive and legislature. The text of proclamation of emergency is given below:

The 5th March 1947

No. 465-Leg.—The following Proclamation by His Excellency the Governor of the Punjab, dated the 5th March 1947, is published for general information:-

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the Governor of the Province of the Punjab is satisfied that a situation has arisen in which the Government of the Province cannot be carried on in accordance with the provisions of the Government of India Act, 1935 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act"):

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by Section 93 of the Act and with the concurrence of the Governor-General, the Governor by this Proclamation—

- (a) declares that all his functions under the Act shall be exercised by him in his discretion ;*

(b) assumes of himself all powers vested by or under the Act in the Provincial Legislature and all powers vested in the Provincial Legislative Assembly, but not so as to affect any power exercisable by His Majesty with respect of Bills reserved for his consideration or the disallowance of Acts ;

and he hereby makes the following incidental or consequential provisions which appear to him to be necessary or desirable for giving effect to the objects of this Proclamation, namely—

(1) The operation of the following provisions of the Act is hereby suspended, namely, Sections 50 and 51, Section 59, so far as it relates to or requires consultation with Ministers, Sections 62 to 67 (both inclusive) and 70 to 74 (both inclusive), the proviso to Section 75, the proviso to subsection (1) and (2) of Section 78, and so much of subsection (3) thereof as relates to salaries and allowances of Minister, Sections 79 to 82 (both inclusive), so much of subsection (1) of Section 83 as relates to the passing of a Resolution by the Provincial Legislative Assembly ; sub-section (2) of Section 83 ; Sections 84 to 90 (both inclusive) and so much of Section 169 as relates to the laying of reports before the Provincial Legislature;

(2) In exercising legislative powers under or by virtue of this Proclamation, the Governor, acting in his discretion, shall prepare such Bills as he deems necessary and declare as respects any Bill so prepared either that he assents thereto in His Majesty's name, or that he reserves it for the consideration of the Governor-General: and the reference in subsection (2) of Section 76 to the day on which a Bill was presented to the Governor shall be construed as a reference to the day on which a Bill was so reserved by him ;

- (3) Any expenditure from the revenues of the Province, whether expenditure charged by the Act on those revenues or not, and whether incurred before or after the making of his Proclamation, shall be deemed to have been duly authorized if it is included in an annual estimate of expenditure or a supplementary estimate of expenditure published in the official gazette of the Province ;*
- (4) While this Proclamation is in force it shall, notwithstanding any thing in any rules made under the Act relating to elections, be unnecessary for an election to be held for the purpose of filling any casual vacancy in the Provincial Legislature ;*
- (5) Any reference in the Act of Provincial Acts, Provincial laws, or Acts or ` of a Provincial Legislature shall be construed as including* a reference to Acts made under or by virtue of this Proclamation, and the Punjab General Clauses Act, 1898, and so much of the General Clauses Act, 1897, as applies to Provincial laws, shall have effect in relation to any such Act as if it were an Act of the Provincial Legislature.

Since the partition of the sub-continent had been decided, therefore, in pursuance of paragraph 6 of the Statement of His Majesty's Government dated June 3, 1947, special meetings of the Western Section of the Assembly (presided over by the Speaker Diwan Bahadur S.P.Singha) and that of the Eastern Section (presided over by the Deputy Speaker Sardar Kapur Singh) were held on June 23, 1947. The agenda for these meetings was to decide whether or not the Province of the Punjab be partitioned. After voting on both sides, partition was decided¹. Consequently, the existing Punjab Legislative Assembly was also divided into West Punjab Legislative Assembly and the East Punjab Legislative Assembly.

The sitting members belonging to the Western Section subsequently became the members of the new Assembly renamed as the West Punjab Legislative Assembly.

This last Assembly before independence, held its last sitting on July 4, 1947. It stayed for about one year and four months and held 13 sittings during this period.

West Punjab Legislative Assembly 1947

August 15, 1947 to January 25, 1949

On August 14, 1947, the sovereign state of Pakistan came into existence under the Indian Independence Act, 1947. Till such time the constituent Assembly promulgated a constitution for the country, the Government of India Act 1935, mutatis mutandis, was adopted as the provisional constitution under the Pakistan (Provisional Constitution) Order 1947¹.

As a result of the voting in the Punjab Legislative Assembly 1946 held on June 23, 1947, the Assembly stood divided into West Punjab Legislative Assembly and the East Punjab Legislative Assembly.

All sitting members of the Punjab Legislative Assembly 1946, elected from constituencies included in the Province of West Punjab (their number being 91), were declared to have been elected to the renamed West Punjab Legislative Assembly with effect from August 15, 1947².

The first sitting was held on January 5, 1948. Sir Robert Francis Mudie, Governor of West Punjab appointed Mr Muhammad Jamal Khan Leghari to perform the duties of Speaker till new Speaker was elected³. The second session, which was also the last session of the Assembly, was held from March 15, 1948 to April 9, 1948.

² Section 5(1) of the Pakistan (Provincial Legislatures) Order 1947 (GGO 19 of 1947), published in the Gazette of Pakistan (Extraordinary), dated September 13, 1947, pages 85-86.

First time the proceedings of the House started with the recitation of verses from Holy Qur'an on the point of order of Ch. Muhammad Hassan on March 15, 1948. Maulvi Ahmad Jan, MLA had the honour of recitation of verses from Holy Qur'an.

This Assembly had held 29 sittings over two sessions when the Governor dissolved it on January 25, 1949¹. In this way, the first Assembly after independence remained on ground for a period of 1 year, 5 months and 11 days and passed 15 Acts during this period.

Punjab Legislative Assembly 1951

May 7, 1951 to October 14, 1955

The dissolution of West Punjab Legislative Assembly in 1949 was followed by a gap of about two and a half year due to assorted political developments in the newly born state of Pakistan.

In 1950, the Province of West Punjab was renamed as Province of Punjab and as a result of the general elections held in 1951 under the Pakistan (Provisional Constitution) Order, 1947; the Punjab Legislative Assembly consisting of 174 Members was constituted. The first sitting of the Assembly, held on May 7, 1951, was presided over by Sardar Muhammad Jamal Khan¹.

House accepted an offer of a membership to Common Wealth Association on its sitting held during December 14, 1953. through a resolution for the first time.

Motion of re-unification of West Pakistan was presented and passed by the House in its sitting held on November 30, 1954. Opposition staged a walk on this motion.

The Assembly held 114 sittings over 10 sessions and passed 72 Acts during its life of 4 years 5 months and 8 days when it ceased to exist on the formation of one-unit on October 14, 1955. It had met for the last time on March 31, 1955.

Provincial Assembly of West Pakistan

Interim, 1956, 1962, 1965

Interim Provincial Assembly of West Pakistan

reconstituted as

Provincial Assembly of West Pakistan 1956

May 19, 1956 to October 7, 1958

Under the Establishment of West Pakistan Act, 1955¹, the territories of the Governors' Provinces of the Punjab, the North-West Frontier and Sind; the Chief Commissioner's Province of Baluchistan and the capital of the Federation; the states of Bahawalpur and Khairpur, and Baluchistan States Union; and the Tribal Areas of Baluchistan, the Punjab and the North-West Frontier, and the states of Amb, Chitral, Dir and Swat were incorporated into a single Province namely Province of West Pakistan².

Section 11, read with the Second Schedule of the said Act, envisaged that until a Provincial Legislature was constituted for the West Pakistan, an interim Provincial Legislature would be constituted comprising the Governor of the West Pakistan and a Legislative Assembly composed of 310 members (10 general seats, 290 seats for Muslims and 10 seats reserved for women).

It was also provided in the said Act that this interim Legislature, unless dissolved earlier, would stand dissolved on expiration of eighteen months from the date of commencement of the said Act. The election to the interim Legislature was to be held on a day fixed by the Governor General. It was also provided that the first meeting of the interim Legislature would be held within sixty days of completion of election.

The election of the interim Legislature was held on January 19, 1956 and the results of the election were notified on January 29, 1956¹. However, before this interim Assembly could hold its first sitting, the first Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan was enacted on February 29, 1956 and came into force with effect from March 23, 1956. Article 76 of this Constitution contained provision for the constitution of a Provincial Legislature for West Pakistan comprising 300 members.

In order to give constitutional cover to the prevailing political scenario, the 1956 Constitution contained temporary and transitional provisions in Part XIII. According to Article 225 of the 1956 Constitution, until a Provincial Assembly for the Province of West Pakistan had been duly constituted, the already elected interim Assembly had to exercise the powers and perform the duties of Provincial Assembly of West Pakistan. Accordingly, the interim Assembly was declared as West Pakistan Legislative Assembly, with effect from March 23, 1956, the date on which the Constitution came into force.

It held its first sitting on May 19, 1956 (presided over by Mirza Mumtaz Hassan Qizalbash, a member of the Assembly¹) and its last session was held from August 25 to August 28, 1958. This Assembly had held 80 sittings over 6 sessions when under the proclamation of Martial Law on October 7, 1958, it was dissolved and the 1956 Constitution was abrogated. It is pertinent to mention here that no elections under the 1956 Constitution could be held. This Assembly passed 75 Acts during its life of 2 years 4 months and 19 days.

It is worth-mentioning that Chaudhri Fazl-e-Elahi was elected as Speaker of this Assembly through a casting vote of the Presiding Officer, Mirza Mumtaz Hassan Qizalbash².

Provincial Assembly of West Pakistan 1962

June 9, 1962 to June 8, 1965

After imposition of Martial Law in 1958, General Muhammad Ayub Khan introduced the concept of basic democracy through the Basic Democracy Order, 1959. The first BD elections to elect forty thousand representatives each from the East Pakistan and the West Pakistan, were held in December 1959. An Advisory Council was constituted instead of a legislature (for details, see Part 3 of this book). On February 14, 1960, these BD members authorized General Muhammad Ayub Khan to promulgate a Constitution who promulgated it on March 1, 1962 and it came into force on June 8, 1962.

Article 70 of the 1962 Constitution provided that there would be a provincial legislature comprising of 155 members for a term of five years. Article 230, however, envisaged that the term of first legislature would be three years.

The BD members served as electoral college for the election of the President and National and Provincial Assemblies. The Provincial Assembly of West Pakistan comprising 155 Members was elected by the BD Members. It held its first sitting on June 9, 1962 which was presided over by Justice Masood Ahmad, Member, Election Commission¹. This Assembly ceased to exist on June 8, 1965 on the completion of three years' term. It held 216 sittings over 7 sessions with the last session held from December 21, 1964 to January 31, 1965.

During that period 77 Ordinances were laid before the House out of which 75 were Passed, 56 government original Bill were introduced out of which 48 were passed and 8 bills were withdrawn. Total 60 Private Bills were introduced 10 were passed one was rejected and others were pended with Committees when Assembly's term expired.

Mr. Justice Masud Ahmad, member Election Commission presided over the first meeting and administered the oath and election of Speaker.

Its first Speaker, Mr Mubin-ul-Haq Siddiqui was elected unopposed on June 12, 1962 and was removed from the office of Speaker as a result of a 'No Confidence Motion' against him on July 4, 1963¹ and was succeeded by Ch Muhammad Anwar Bhinder.

Mr Chou En Lai, Prime Minister of Peoples Republic of China, addressed this Assembly on February 24, 1964 and Marshal Abdul Salam Arif, President Republic of Iraq, addressed it on March 24, 1964.

Provincial Assembly of West Pakistan 1965

June 9, 1965 to March 25, 1969

The next Provincial Assembly of West Pakistan was constituted for a period of five years in accordance with Articles 70 to 72 of the Constitution of 1962¹. The Leader of the House was empowered only to run the internal affairs of the Assembly under the guidance of the Governor. Chaudhri Muhammad Anwar Bhinder presided over the first sitting of the Assembly and was re-elected as Speaker on June 12, 1965 unopposed².

The Assembly met for 248 sittings over 8 sessions with the last session held from January 1, 1969 to February 20, 1969. This Assembly remained on ground for 3 years 9 months and 17 days when it was dissolved on March 25, 1969 as a result of the proclamation of Martial Law by General Muhammad Yahya Khan, abrogating 1962 Constitution³. This Assembly passed 30 Acts.

Provincial Assembly of the Punjab 1972

May 2, 1972 to January 13, 1977

On July 26, 1969, the Chief Martial Law Administrator assigned the Election Commission the duty of making preparations for the next elections.

The Province of West Pakistan was abolished with effect from July 1, 1970, and the provinces of Punjab, Sind, Balochistan and NWFP stood restored¹.

The CMLA also promulgated the Legal Framework Order 1970 (PO 2 of 1970)² providing for constitution of National and Provincial Assemblies³. The Provincial Assembly of the Punjab comprising 186 members was constituted as a result of elections held on December 17, 1970 under the 1970 Order read with LFO (Amendment) Order 1970 (PO 18 of 1970)⁴.

Due to political unrest, Indo-Pak war and fall of Dacca (on December 16, 1971), its first meeting could not be held until May 2, 1972. The Martial Law was lifted with effect from April 20, 1972. Pending promulgation of an agreed upon Constitution, an Interim Constitution was adopted which came into force on April 21, 1972. This Interim

Constitution declared Provincial Assembly of the Punjab (elected in December 1970) to be the first Assembly and its term was fixed as five years (Article 108). After coming into force of this Interim Constitution, the Assembly held its first sitting on May 2, 1972, with Malik Ghulam Mustufa Khar, Governor of the Punjab in Chair. Before making of oath by the members, the Governor addressed the Assembly¹. After his address, the Governor administered oath to Ch Muhammad Yaqub Awan, who had been nominated by the Governor to preside the oath making session. After making his oath, Ch Muhammad Yaqub Awan administered the oath to the members².

The new Constitution of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan 1973 was passed by the National Assembly on April 10, 1973 and received the assent of the President on April 11, 1973. The members of the Assembly again made oath under this permanent Constitution³.

This permanent Constitution came into force on August 14, 1973; and the members made oath for the third time⁴.

Under Article 273(1) of the 1973 Constitution, the Assembly had to complete its life on August 14, 1977, however, the Governor dissolved it with effect from January 13, 1977¹. This Assembly held 329 sittings over 19 sessions with its last session held from November 1, 1976 to November 26, 1976. This Assembly stayed for 4 years 8 months and 12 days; and passed 118 Acts.

The Second Islamic Summit Conference was held in the Punjab Assembly Building in February 1974. Almost all the heads of Islamic countries from all over the world participated in the Conference. A Summit Minaret has been built in front of the Assembly Building in commemoration of this historic Conference.

April 9, 1977 to July 5, 1977

After dissolution of previous Provincial Assembly of the Punjab in January 1977, fresh elections were held in March 1977 to elect the new Assembly on the basis of direct independent vote and adult franchise in accordance with the provisions of 1973 Constitution. There were 240 general seats, 5 seats were reserved for minorities and 12 for women.

The first sitting of the Assembly, held on April 9, 1977, was presided over by Sheikh Rafiq Ahmad, outgoing Speaker of the previous Assembly¹. The Assembly had been elected for a term of five years, but it was dissolved under the proclamation of Martial Law on July 5, 1977 by General Muhammad Zia-ul-Haq². The 1973 Constitution was held in abeyance. The Assembly held its last sitting on June 27, 1977. It met for 21 sittings over 2 sessions during its short life of only 2 months and 27 days. This Assembly passed 15 Acts during its existence.

March 12, 1985 to May 30, 1988

During the period from 1977 to 1985, the Constitution of Pakistan was kept in abeyance and the political institutions remained inactive due to imposition of Martial Law. Two advisory councils, however, were constituted during this period as Provincial Council of the Punjab in 1980 and 1983 (for details, see Part 3 of this book).

In order to restore political process in the country, the general elections, on the basis of non-party and separate electorate, were held on February 25, 1985 for the National Assembly and on February 28, 1985 for the Provincial Assemblies. The membership of Provincial Assembly of the Punjab was 260 (240 general seats, 8 seats reserved for minorities and 12 seats reserved for women).

After having been substantially amended by the Chief Martial Law Administrator and the then President of Pakistan, the 1973 Constitution was partially reactivated through the Revival of the Constitution of 1973 Order, 1985 (P.O. 14 of 1985) w.e.f. March 10, 1985. With the lifting of Martial Law on December 30, 1985, the Constitution was wholly restored¹.

¹The Proclamation of Withdrawal of Martial Law dated December 30, 1985 published the same day in the Gazette of Pakistan (Extraordinary), pages 431-32. See also PLD 1986, Central Statutes, page 13).

This Assembly held its first sitting on March 12, 1985¹ which was presided over by Ch Faiz Ahmed, a member of the Assembly. Though the Assembly was elected for a term of five years, but it stayed only for 3 years 2 months and 19 days; when the Governor dissolved it on May 30, 1988² following the dissolution of National Assembly by the then President General Zia-ul-Haq on account of prevailing political disturbance in the country. Its last session was held from January 14, 1988 to February 14, 1988. It met for 160 sittings over 12 sessions and had passed 26 Acts before its dissolution.

The Golden Jubilee of the Punjab Assembly, celebrated from February 1 to February 3, 1988, was a landmark in the history of the Punjab Assembly³.

Provincial Assembly of the Punjab 1988

November 30, 1988 to August 6, 1990

National and Provincial Assemblies were dissolved in May 1988 for holding fresh elections on non-party basis. But, before the holding of the elections, General Muhammad Zia-ul-Haq, the then President of Pakistan died in a plane crash on August 17, 1988, and in the light of decision of Supreme Court, the elections were held on party basis on November 19, 1988.

Mian Manzoor Ahmad Wattoo presided over the first sitting of the Assembly. The tenure of the Assembly was five years but, after a period of only one year, 8 months and 7 days, the Governor dissolved the Assembly on August 6, 1990¹ following the dissolution of National Assembly by Ghulam Ishaq Khan, the then President, due to political crisis.

The Assembly held its last session from June 9, 1990 to June 28, 1990. A total of 95 sittings over 11 sessions were held. During its life, the Assembly passed 17 Acts.

Provincial Assembly of the Punjab 1990

November 5, 1990 to June 28, 1993

After dissolution of previous Assembly in August 1990, general elections were held on October 27, 1990 for electing the new Assembly.

Mian Manzoor Ahmad Wattoo presided over the first sitting of the Assembly and was elected unopposed as Speaker for the third consecutive term. He continued as such till April 25, 1993 when he became Chief Minister after the removal of Mr Ghulam Haider Wyne from the office of Chief Minister as a result of a no confidence motion¹. In the history of Punjab Assembly, it was the first no confidence motion passed against any Chief Minister.

The Assembly had been elected for a tenure of five years but, on the advice of the Chief Minister, the Governor dissolved it on May 29, 1993. The Lahore High Court held the dissolution of the Assembly as illegal and restored the same on June 28, 1993². The Governor, on the advice of the Chief Minister, again dissolved the Assembly within minutes of its restoration by the Lahore High Court.

October 18, 1993 to November 17, 1996

After dissolution of the previous Assembly on the advice of Chief Minister in June 1993, this Assembly was constituted as a result of general elections held in October 1993. Mr Saeed Ahmad Khan Manais, outgoing Speaker of previous Assembly, presided over the first sitting. Mian Manzoor Ahmad Wattoo was re-elected as the Chief Minister on October 20, 1993 and held office till September 12, 1995 when he failed to obtain the vote of confidence¹ and was replaced by Sardar Muhammad Arif Nakai on September 13, 1995².

Mian Manzoor Ahmad Wattoo challenged his removal from office in the Lahore High Court. The Court, by its order dated November 3, 1996, restored him to the office of the Chief Minister as on September 5, 1995³.

This Assembly could not complete its tenure of five years and the Governor dissolved it on November 17, 1996⁴. It held its last session from November 10, 1996 to November 16, 1996; thus it met for 174 sittings over 40 sessions and passed 25 Acts.

Provincial Assembly of the Punjab 1997

February 18, 1997 to October 12, 1999

This Assembly was constituted as a result of general elections held in February 1997. Its first meeting was summoned on February 18, 1997 and was presided over by Mr Muhammad Hanif Ramey, the outgoing Speaker of previous Assembly¹.

With the public and press openly speculating about the possibility of a military take over, Mian Muhammad Nawaz Sharif, the then Prime Minister, removed General Pervez Musharraf from the office of Army Chief. In turn, General Pervez Musharraf contacted top Army Generals who took over the country ousting Nawaz Sharif's administration. General Musharraf assumed control of the Government on October 12, 1999. The Constitution was held in abeyance and the Assemblies were placed under suspension w.e.f. October 12, 1999 through the Proclamation of Emergency by General Pervez Musharraf who assumed the office of Chief Executive of the Country². The Supreme Court validated the coup on the grounds of necessity. The Assemblies remained under suspension till June 20, 2001 when they were finally dissolved³.

November 25, 2002 to November 18, 2007

The proclamation of emergency in October 1999, kept the Constitution of Pakistan and the political institutions inactive for three years. In order to revive these institutions, the Chief Executive of Pakistan promulgated a Legal Framework Order 2002 (Chief Executive's Order No. 24 of 2002), which, after slight modifications, became part of the 1973 Constitution through 17th Amendment.

The LFO, as amended from time to time, brought significant changes in the 1973 Constitution including alteration in the set up of the Assemblies e.g. membership of the Assemblies was increased, a substantial percentage was fixed for seats reserved for women. The members to fill the general seats were to be elected by direct and free vote on the basis of joint electorate and single member constituency and the seats reserved for women and non-Muslims were to be filled through proportional representative system.

The Assembly, consisting of 371 members (297 general seats, 66 seats reserved for women and 8 seats reserved for non-Muslims), was constituted as a result of general elections held on October 10, 2002. First sitting of the Assembly was held on November 25, 2002, and was presided over by Ch Parvez Elahi, the outgoing Speaker of previous Assembly¹ who was later elected as Chief Minister on November 27, 2002.

¹Proceedings, Provincial Assembly of the Punjab, November 25, 2002, pages 1-35.

The Assemblies were about to complete their constitutional tenure of five years, when, due to political unrest, increasing acts of terrorism and judicial activism resulting in rift between three tiers of state, the Chief of Army Staff (President) declared emergency in the country on November 3, 2007. A Provisional Constitution Order was issued and the Constitution was held in abeyance.

The National Assembly stood dissolved on completion of its constitutional tenure on November 15, 2007, however, the Provincial Assemblies were dissolved on November 18, 2007 by the Governors on the advice of Chief Ministers, few days before completion of their tenure in order to hold elections of all the Assemblies on January 8, 2008, which were, later, postponed till February 18, 2008.

This Assembly held its last session from October 3 to October 5, 2007. With 322 sittings over 31 sessions, this Assembly passed 83 Acts. It is pertinent to mention that it is the longest staying Assembly with an active life of 4 years, 11 months and 25 days.

April 9, 2008 to March 20, 2013

The previous Assembly had been dissolved during the proclamation of emergency, which was, however, lifted on December 15, 2007. It had been decided to hold general elections on January 8, 2008. However, following the assassination of former Prime Minister Ms Benazir Bhutto on December 27, 2007, the Election Commission of Pakistan postponed the general elections till February 18, 2008.

The 15th Punjab Assembly was constituted as a result of February 2008 general elections with the same composition as that of previous Assembly, i.e., 371 members (297 general seats, 66 seats reserved for women and 8 seats reserved for non-Muslims). The first sitting of the Assembly was presided over by Chaudhry Muhammad Afzal Sahi, the outgoing Speaker of the previous Assembly¹.

Two major political parties, PML (N) and PPPP decided to form coalition Government in centre and Punjab. Since, Mian Muhammad Shahbaz Sharif could not contest the general election; Sirdar Dost Muhammad Khan Khosa was ascertained as Chief Minister of Punjab on April 12, 2008 as interim arrangement. When Mian Muhammad Shahbaz Sharif was elected unopposed from PP-48 on June 3, 2008, Sirdar Dost Muhammad Khan Khosa resigned from his office and Mian Muhammad Shahbaz Sharif was ascertained as Chief Minister on June 8, 2008.

A rift developed in the coalition over the issue of restoration of higher judiciary. With the decision of Supreme Court of Pakistan on February 25, 2009 declaring Mian Muhammad Shahbaz Sharif disqualified from the Assembly aggravated the rift. With the disqualification of sitting Chief Minister, the cabinet also stood dissolved and the President of Pakistan imposed governor rule in Punjab on February 25, 2009 under Article 234 of the Constitution. The governor rule was, however, lifted on March 30, 2009 and a special session was called for ascertainment of new Chief Minister to be held on April 1, 2009. But, on March 31, 2009, the Supreme Court of Pakistan suspended its earlier decision dated February 25, 2009 resulting in restoration of Chief Minister and the Punjab cabinet.

Eventually on February 25, 2011 the coalition between PML (N) and PPPP was ended and the ministers of PPPP were de-notified by the Punjab Government.

By 18th Amendment in constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan the days of sitting of Provincial Assemblies were increased from 70 to 100 in a parliamentary year.

With 414 sittings over 45 sessions, this Assembly has passed 134 Acts out of which 133 were government Bills and 1 was a private member's Bill.

The Assembly was about to complete its constitutional tenure of five years, when, for holding the general elections on the same date throughout the country, it was dissolved on March 20, 2013 by the Governor Punjab on the advice of Chief Minister.

West Pakistan Development Advisory Council 1960

June 24, 1960 to November 8, 1961

On October 7, 1958, Iskandar Mirza, the then President of Pakistan, proclaimed Martial Law abrogating 1956 Constitution and dissolved the National and Provincial Assemblies as well as the Cabinets; outlawed the political parties and appointed General Muhammad Ayub Khan as Chief Martial Law Administrator. On October 27, 1958, General Ayub Khan removed the President and assumed the office of the President.

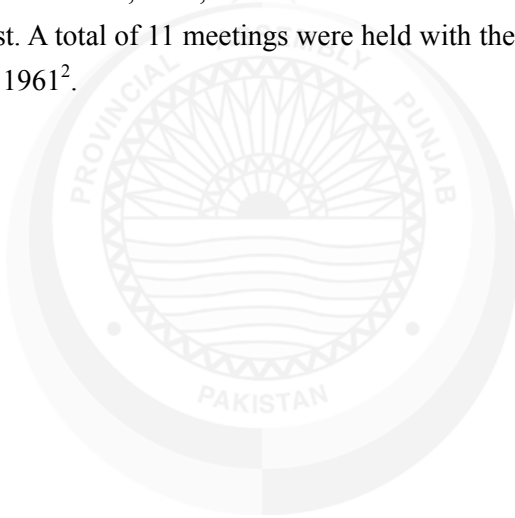

The Basic Democracy Order 1959 (PO No 18 of 1959), inter alia, provided for the constitution of two Advisory Councils, to be called the East Pakistan Development Advisory Council and the West Pakistan Development Advisory Council. Article 69 of the Order provided that each Council would consist of such number of official (from amongst heads of Government departments) and appointed (to be appointed by the President on the recommendation of the Governor) members as may be fixed by the President; provided that at least one third of the appointed members would be chosen from amongst the Chairmen of the Union Councils, and Town and Union Committees. The Governor would be an official member and Chairman of the Council.

The functions of the Council were envisaged in Article 71 of the Order, which were of purely advisory nature with no legislative powers.

The West Pakistan Development Advisory Council was thus constituted and the first meeting of the Council was held on June 24, 1960 in Assembly Chambers with Malik Amir Muhammad Khan, Governor of West Pakistan, in Chair¹.

The term of the Council was fixed as five years (Article 70(1) of the Order), however, upon constitution of Provincial Assembly of West Pakistan, 1962 on June 9, 1962, under the 1962 Constitution, the Council ceased to exist. A total of 11 meetings were held with the last sitting on November 8, 1961².

Provincial Council of the Punjab 1980

April 19, 1980 to May 25, 1983

On July 5, 1977, Martial Law was imposed in the country, the Assemblies were dissolved and the 1973 Constitution was held in abeyance. General Zia-ul-Haq assumed the office of Chief Martial Law Administrator and the four provinces were declared as Martial Law Zones under the control of Governors/Martial Law Administrators.

On April 16, 1980, through SGA&ID Notification No.Cab-II-2-5/80, Lt Gen Sawar Khan, Governor/Martial Law Administrator Zone 'A' constituted a Provincial Council after the Local Bodies election held in 1980 under the Punjab Local Government Ordinance 1979. It comprised Governor/MLA as its Chairman and Ministers/Advisors; Mayors, Deputy Mayors, Chairmen and Vice Chairmen of all Municipal Corporations, District Councils and Municipal Committees of Punjab; elected lady councilors nominated by the Governor, and such other persons as nominated by the Governor. The first meeting of the Council was held on April 19, 1980¹ and its last session was held on May 25, 1983². The Council held 24 meetings during the period.
